FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL Wheeling Wholesale Market.

OFFICE DAILY INTRILIGENCER, OFFIGE DALLY INTELLIGENCER, Wednesday, September 6, General business continues sluggish, unusually so for this season of the year, and while it is hoped that a revival kenear at hand, the outlook is not very promising. There is a fair inquiry for Wheat and Oats, but other grains continue dull with no quotable change in prices during the week. In Groceries and Provisions there is still a brisk trade to report. There is an increasing demand for Butter and Eggs, and prices since the date of our last weekly review are better. Cheese is also more inquired for. Wool continues firm, the recent advance being maintained.

Wool continues firm, the recent advance being maintained.

APPLES—There is rather more inquiry, and with only a fair supply the market is firmer, but there is no improvement in prices, which may be quoted at 50ca$1.00 per bid for fair to choice. As the supply, not only here but elsewhere, is reported heavy, prices are destined to rule low all winter, as compared with the past few years.

Condition.

BUTTER—There has been no falling of in the demand for fine table. Butter during in the demand for find table butter darks the week under review, but prices are not quotably higher. With the advent of cool weather the consumption of prime table Butter always increases, and then the production during the fall is never as large as it is sluring the spring and early part of summer.
